HONG KONG NEWS

CE visits Europe

The Chief Executive of HKSAR, Mrs Carrie Lam, started her visit to Belgium, France and Germany on June 14. On June 14, Mrs Lam met with the Vice President of the European Commission and High Representative of the European Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy, Ms Federica Mogherini. Mrs Lam expressed the hope that collaboration between Hong Kong and the European Union (EU) will continue to strengthen, and in particular welcomed scientific and research institutions from the EU to develop in Hong Kong.

Mrs Lam then attended a business luncheon co-organised by the European Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong and the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in Brussels. The luncheon was graced by the Belgian Deputy Prime Minister cum Minister of Foreign Affairs, Foreign Trade and European Affairs, Mr Didier Reynders, and European Commissioner for Trade, Ms Cecilia Malmström. Mrs Lam also had audience with HM King Philippe of the Belgians at the Royal Palace.

On June 15, Mrs Lam met with the President of the European Commission, Mr Jean-Claude Juncker in Brussels. Noting that Hong Kong, which has been a staunch supporter of free trade, signed a Free Trade Agreement and a related Investment Agreement with the Association of the Southeast Asian Nations last year, she hoped to commence relevant discussion with the EU. Mrs Lam then visited the Belgian Parliament and met with the President of the Chamber of Representatives, Mr Siegfried Bracke, to introduce to him Hong Kong's latest situation.

June 20, 2018

On June 16, Mrs Lam and the Deputy Mayor of Bordeaux, Mr Stephan Delaux, witnessed the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding between the Hong Kong Tourism Board (HKTB) and the Convention and Tourism Office of Bordeaux Metropole on strengthening of collaboration in wine and food tourism promotion between the two places.

On June 18, Mrs Carrie Lam met with the Vice President of the Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur Region, Mrs Caroline Pozmentier-Sportich, in Marseille. Mrs Lam then attended a ceremony on delivery of helicopters for the Government Flying Service. The State Secretary to the Minister for Europe and Foreign Affairs, Mr Jean-Baptiste Lemoyne, also attended the ceremony. After the ceremony, Mrs Lam attended a lunch hosted by the Chief Executive of Airbus Helicopters and toured the Airbus Helicopters.

On June 19, Mrs Lam met with the Minister of Foreign Affairs of France, Mr Jean-Yves Le Drian. She expressed the hope that Hong Kong and France will have more collaboration in the future, including in the promotion of free trade and participation in the Belt and Road Initiative. Mrs Lam then joined a breakfast meeting hosted by Institut Montaigne, a think tank in France, which was attended by French business leaders, academics, etc.

On June 20, Mrs Lam attended and spoke at the "Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Bay Area" (Bay Area) seminar which was jointly held by Hong Kong, Guangdong and Macao governments in Paris. She called on French businesses to take advantage of the unique business opportunities arising from the Bay Area.

Mrs Lam will depart for Germany on June 21 for attending the Opening Ceremony of the Lindau Nobel Laureate Meeting 2018 and a session on the promotion of science innovation across different cultures in Lindau.

She will return to Hong Kong on June 26.

HKSAR Government welcomes proposed development of first European design flower-themed garden in Hong Kong

The Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development, Mr Edward Yau, attended the signing ceremony of co-operation agreements of a tourism project, the Kaleido Park, between Hong Kong-based event organiser, Mr Alan Fang, and Dutch floriculture expert, Mr Ibo Gülsen, in Noordwijkerhout, the Netherlands on June 18. Mr Yau witnessed the signing ceremony together with the Dutch Minister for Foreign Trade and Development Cooperation, Mrs Sigrid Kaag.

Mr Yau remarked that the HKSAR Government welcomed the project, when materialised, will not only bring a new attraction for the enjoyment of the local community, but also enrich the tourism offerings, further enhancing Hong Kong's position as an international premier tourist destination. The Kaleido Park organiser is considering locating the flower park at the site reserved for Hong Kong Disneyland Resort's possible Phase 2 development.

CE welcomes passage of Guangzhou-Shenzhen-Hong Kong Express Rail Link (Co-location) Bill

The Chief Executive of HKSAR, Mrs Carrie Lam, welcomed the passage of the Guangzhou-Shenzhen-Hong Kong Express Rail Link (Co-location) Bill by the Legislative Council on June 14, signifying a big step towards the target of the commissioning of the Hong Kong Section of the Guangzhou-Shenzhen-Hong Kong Express Rail Link (XRL) in September this year.

Mrs Lam said that the passage of the Bill marks the basic completion of the "Three-step Process" of the co-location arrangement at the XRL West Kowloon Station. It provides a sound legal basis for the co-location arrangement, fully unleashing the transport, economic and social benefits of the XRL.

After the commissioning of the Hong Kong Section of the XRL, people will be able to take direct trains to four short-haul stations, namely Futian, Shenzhen North, Humen and Guangzhou South, realising the "one-hour living circle" in the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Bay Area. It will also connect Hong Kong to 14 cities including Beijing, Shanghai, Fuzhou, Xiamen and Guilin by direct long-haul trains.

Cosmetics company and travel tech start-up open in Hong Kong

Japan-listed cosmetics review media and retail company, istyle Inc., announced on June 7 that it will open its first cosmetics store "@cosme store" in Hong Kong as part of its global expansion plan. The new store is located at a tourist hotspot in Tsim Sha Tsui, offering a wide range of popular Japanese cosmetic brands. The president of istyle Retail (Hong Kong) Co, Limited, Mr Hajime Endo, said that Hong Kong is a large market for Japanese cosmetics given the high popularity of Japanese cosmetics among Hong Kong shoppers. With a shop in Hong Kong, they can also reach out to huge number of international and Mainland Chinese visitors to promote their brand globally.

In addition, global travel tech start-up, Hey Travelista, announced on June 8 that it has opened its Hong Kong office as the global headquarters to launch their new online travel platform for affluent travellers in Asia. Hey Travelista offers its registered members exclusive high-end and unique hotel packages, with additional value-added inclusions, through its new travel platform. Its co-founder Mr Tony Low said that Hong Kong has a huge tourism market. As Hong Kongers are among the most frequent travellers in the world, they want to be part of this market. Also, the city is next to Mainland China and its growing number of middle class travellers. It is a perfect place for a travel tech company to launch.
