Under the border control measures of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) Government introduced on August 9, 2021, overseas places are categorised into high-risk, medium-risk and low-risk groups. Canada is currently in Group B (Medium-risk) group, under which Hong Kong residents and fully vaccinated non-Hong Kong residents are allowed to board flights for Hong Kong.

Travellers from Canada are required to present at boarding (i) a negative result proof of a polymerase chain reaction (PCR)-based nucleic acid test for COVID-19 conducted within 72 hours before the scheduled time of departure of the aircraft; (ii) confirmation in English or Chinese of room reservation in a designated quarantine hotel in Hong Kong; and (iii) a vaccination record if applicable. The same requirements apply to travellers who have stayed in Canada during the 14 days before boarding the flight to Hong Kong. Please refer to the webpage <https://www.coronavirus.gov.hk/eng/inbound-travel.html#quarantinemeasuresofinbound> for details.

The "COVID-19 Thematic Website" of the HKSAR Government has been added to the official website of Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office (Toronto) (HKETO). You are invited to browse the page by clicking the banner on top of HKETO website or the link: <https://www.coronavirus.gov.hk>

Hong Kong film “Drifting” screens at Toronto Reel Asian International Film Festival

The HKETO is sponsoring the virtual screening of the Hong Kong film “Drifting” at the Toronto Reel Asian International Film Festival, Canada’s largest Asian film festival, from November 10 to 19.

Speaking before the screening of “Drifting” in a pre-recorded message, the Director of the HKETO, Ms Emily Mo, remarked that Hong Kong has been making movies for more than a century, and has been one of the favourite locations for filmmakers around the globe. In the past decade, Hong Kong movies and moviemakers won over 500 international awards.

Ms Mo added that in order to support the Hong Kong film industry, the HKSAR Government has been adopting a multi-pronged approach in boosting its development. The HKETO will also continue to support Hong Kong films to participate in various international film festivals held in Canada.

The film “Drifting” is directed by a young Hong Kong moviemaker, Jun Li, and features an outstanding ensemble of actors including stars Francis Ng, Tse Kwan-ho and Loletta Lee. Taking a closer look at Hong Kong’s homeless people, the film has been selected for various international film festivals.

HONG KONG NEWS

Hong Kong, China participates actively in APEC 2021 Economic Leaders' Week

Hong Kong, China has actively participated in the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) 2021 Economic Leaders' Week, pledging support for international cooperation in fighting against the pandemic and championing free trade as a solution for the post-pandemic global economy recovery.

APEC 2021 is hosted by New Zealand under the theme of "Join, Work, Grow. Together". The Chief Executive of the HKSAR, Mrs Carrie Lam, participated in the APEC Business Advisory Council Dialogue on November 11 and the Economic Leaders' Meeting on November 12 respectively via video-conferencing while the Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development of the HKSAR, Mr Edward Yau, attended the two-day APEC Ministerial Meeting on November 8 and 9.

Speaking at the Economic Leaders' Meeting on November 12, Mrs Lam stressed Hong Kong, China's determination to join all APEC member economies to navigate through the pandemic, and the importance to guard against resurgence of the pandemic.

Mrs Lam gave an account of Hong Kong, China's reassuring economic outlook. With the staunch support of the Central People's Government, Hong Kong, China has formulated an array of initiatives to support the achievement of sustainable development goals.

Mrs Lam reaffirmed Hong Kong, China's unequivocal support for multilateralism and international cooperation in overcoming the global crisis and delivering an inclusive and sustainable recovery. As a champion of free trade, Hong Kong, China steadfastly stands by the rules-based multilateral trading system and will collaborate constructively with other World Trade Organization members for a meaningful outcome at the 12th Ministerial Conference.

At the end of the meeting, Mrs Lam and Leaders of other APEC member economies endorsed the Aotearoa Plan of Action and issued the APEC 2021 Economic Leaders' Declaration.

On the previous day, Mrs Lam attended the APEC Economic Leaders' Dialogue with the APEC Business Advisory Council (ABAC) via video conferencing, during which she and leaders of the other economies exchanged views with ABAC representatives on the priority issues as economies emerge from COVID-19.

APEC Economic Leaders and ABAC representatives then attended different breakout group discussion sessions. Mrs Lam noted at her session that Hong Kong is among the most effective in the world in controlling COVID-19. The city will continue to promote vaccination and work hard to resume quarantine-free cross-boundary people flow with Mainland China and other parts of the world.

Mrs Lam also said that Hong Kong will strive to achieve carbon neutrality by 2050 through a series of decarbonisation efforts, and she welcomed the participation of the business sector.

Reaffirming Hong Kong's commitment to free trade and regional economic cooperation, Mrs Lam also reiterated Hong Kong's interest in its early accession to joining the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership.

Also attended the dialogue session with Mrs Lam were the Minister of International Trade, Export Promotion, Small Business and Economic Development of Canada, Ms Mary Ng; Prime Minister of Japan, Mr Fumio Kishida; the President of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam, Mr Nguyen Xuan Phuc; and about 10 ABAC members from various economies.
